BY FRANCIS M. STEPHENSON.
WASHINGTON, May 24.—(AP)—The senate made the first decision in the compromise billion dollar revenue bill tonight after firmly rejecting the auto truck levy, retaining the 2 per cent tax on the export debenture farm relief proposal 46 to 23.

The 1 per cent increase, provided in the compromise measure drafted by the senate finance committee, in the tax on auto trucks over the 2 per cent voted by the house was rejected, 39 to 30.

Before the senate recessed at 10:20 p. m., leaders of the bi-party coalition quickly rallied a majority, however, to prevent elimination of the auto truck levy, retaining the 2 per cent rate, 40 to 20.

A sharp warning by Senator Harrison, of Mississippi, that the sales tax forces were combining with the high income tax group to wreck the excise schedule brought a reversal in the line-up on the second roll call.

$2,000,000 Slash.
Only $2,000,000 was cut from the $1,000,000,000 measure by the senate in rejecting the 3 per cent truck tax, but it was the effect of revision on the delicately framed compromise which concerned the leadership.

Senator Cawson, republican, Michigan, who previously tried unsuccessfully to put the high war-time income tax on the bill, led the successful fight against the 3 per cent auto truck tax along with Senator Vandenberg, republican, Michigan.

They got the support of Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, leader of the sales tax group, and of the western independents who voted for the high income taxes rejected by the senate.

When the test came on complete elimination of the truck levy, however, the western independents, who are opposing the sales tax, switched over and supported the 2 per cent rate.

Export Debenture Plan.
The Norris amendment, which would have added the export debenture plan of farm relief to the bill, was rejected, after Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, pleaded that the door be closed against further tariff revision lest the bill be wrecked.

Pledges for consideration of farm relief legislation at this session were made by Robinson and Chairman McNary, of the agriculture committee.

Senator Bingham, republican, Connecticut, offered a tax on beer containing 3.6 per cent alcohol by volume or 2.75 per cent by weight as a substitute for the automobile tax increase, and indicated he would vote on this proposition tomorrow.

Votes also will be in order tomorrow on the passenger automobile levy and the tax on accessories.

The house voted rates of 3 per cent on passenger cars and 1 per cent on accessories. The senate compromise boosted these to 4 and 2 per cent, respectively.

The house automobile schedule would yield $36,000,000 against $73,000,000 from the senate legis.

Louisiana Senators Favor Referendum

BATON ROUGE, La., May 24.—(AP)—The judiciary committee of the state senate today approved unanimously a bill submitting the question of repealing the state liquor law to the people of Louisiana at the congressional election this fall.

67 Weddings Credited To Clerk in "Racket"

LONDON, May 24.—(UP)—An English bookmaker's clerk who is reported to have married 67 women, sometimes at the rate of two or three a day, is being questioned by authorities here seeking to break up the international "marriage racket."

The clerk's wholesale recklessness was part of the scheme by which hundreds of women allegedly have entered Great Britain from the continent as bogus wives. The British, French and Belgian governments are co-operating to break up the business.

HOUSE TO DEVOTE REST OF SESSION TO RELIEF PLANS

Garner Bill and Banking Measure Chief Among Items Which Representatives Will Study.

BY CECIL B. DICKSON.
WASHINGTON, May 24.—(AP)—The democratic house plans to devote the remainder of this session to additional relief proposals and expects to act on the $2,100,000 plan of Speaker Garner next week.

Farm aid and unemployment relief are intermingled in the numerous measures being considered by house committees.

The agriculture committee is preparing to act on a bill embodying the export debenture, equalization fee and the domestic allotment plans to help the farmer.

Another proposal to have the farm board allot an additional 40,000,000 bushels of wheat to be distributed by the Federal Reserve Bank, which was submitted today by Representative Longner, democrat, Connecticut.

The Almon bill to authorize $219,000,000 for highway construction in 1934 and 1935 to carry on the federal highway aid program and to insure the payment of the $1,000,000 bond by the house road committee.

The house already has passed a $132,000,000 federal highway aid bill, in addition to the $1,000,000 bond regularly allotted and already appropriated for in the coming fiscal year.

Speaker Garner disclosed today that the relief bill he proposed would be incorporated into one bill and referred to the ways and means committee for hearings which probably will be completed in time for house action early next week.

The measure is almost complete. It provides for an increase to $3,000,000 in the Reconstruction Corporation's capital; a $1,000,000 bond issue for public works construction to provide employment, and $100,000,000 for relief of the needy.

Despite President Hoover's objection to the bond issue, democratic and republican leaders expect the bill to meet with overwhelming house approval, particularly in view of the provision for a third of one cent on gasoline to meet the increased sinking fund requirements.

The last of the administration's relief programs—the Luce home loan discount bill—has been approved by the banking committee and is to be formally reported tomorrow. It proposes to set up an organization to handle $125,000,000 in loans to home builders through associations.

Tomorrow the $200 million dollar guarantee bank deposit bill, sponsored by the democratic leadership, is to be taken up by the house.

Methodists Liberalize Divorce Conditions

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 24.—(AP)—The attitude of the Methodist Episcopal church toward divorce was liberalized tonight when the general conference sanctioned a divorce for dissolution "on conditions which through mental or physical cruelty or physical infidelity invalidate the marriage vow."

The change from adultery as the sole grounds, the second in almost a century and a half, was approved by the face of weak opposition which urged the conference to follow other denominations in adopting more stringent regulations and "to go back to the New Testament" for guidance on divorce.

The conference also deleted from the burial service the phrase "ashes to ashes, dust to dust," from the marriage service "with my worldly goods I thee endow," and from the sacrament of the Lord's Supper the word "wine" in every instance except the prayer of consecration.

ROOSEVELT ENDS GEORGIA VACATION, GOES NORTH TODAY

Garner Given Texas' 46
Votes, While New Yorker Adds Six More From Delaware.

BY WALTER T. BROWN.
WARM SPRING, Ga., May 24.—(AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt today was at the end of his last vacation before the democratic national convention and tomorrow he heads north and into political battlegrounds where a fight for and against his presidential nomination aspiration is most acute.

Since he arrived here May 1 for rest, swimming and physiotherapy, 13 states and three territories have committed 172 delegates to his nomination, putting him close to a majority of the 1,154 votes that will determine the winner at Chicago next month.

While the Albany executive was preparing to leave, the Delaware convention added six more votes to his total, while one of his rivals, Speaker John Garner, was being given Texas' 46 delegates.

Tanned and invigorated, the governor pronounced the vacation the best of the eight he has taken here since he became chief executive of the Empire state. When he again returns to Warm Springs in the fall he will either be re-nominee, president-elect, or his party will have determined that he return to private life after January 1. The governor likely will come back to Warm Springs either before or after the November election.

The governor today engaged in water polo and water baseball games. In the same game today he defeated Mrs. Lynn Pierson, wife of a wealthy Detroit, also a patient, and Miss Margaret Lehand, the governor's physician's secretary. Newspapermen and physiologists and young women who minister exercises also took part in the games.

The governor's baseball team took a licking, 17-3, but he scored a single. His team won at polo, the governor's team won in one of four goals after taking several duckings at the hands of Mrs. Lynn Pierson, wife of a wealthy Detroit, also a patient, and Miss Margaret Lehand, the governor's physician's secretary. Tax League Calls on Members To Defeat 'Secret Referendum'

Reiterating its opposition to the proposal to select tax assessors by a vote of the people, the Atlanta Taxpayers' League Tuesday called on all members to cast their ballots today against the change which was secretly proposed. Atlantans today also select nominees to fill 27 city positions from a field of 45 candidates. A total of 35,210 are qualified to cast ballots.

In resolutions adopted unanimously the directors voiced opposition "to any referendum where the people are not given an opportunity to understand the full significance of it."

The proposed amendment was interpreted by the directors as directed against the present board of tax assessors. It was said: "While these gentlemen, in our opinion," said the resolutions, "have not sufficiently reduced assessments, we have no quarrel with them. We realize the extreme difficulties of their position."

Directors expressed the opinion that the present assessors are "honest and capable men," and voiced resentment of "any effort to put political pressure on them."

The "secret method by which this referendum was proposed" was denounced by the directors, who pledged themselves to vote against the referendum and who urged all members of the league to oppose it at the polls.

G. O. P. DRY STAND OCCUPIES HOOVER

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(UP)—President Hoover discussed prohibition and details of the republican national convention in a three-hour conference with his closest political advisors at the White House today.

Those who met in the executive offices with Mr. Hoover were James Francis Burke, counsel to the republican national committee; Postmaster-General Walter Brown, and Charles D. Hilles, republican national committeeman, of New York.

On leaving the White House, Burke acting as spokesman for the group, said all details of the convention had been discussed. When asked if prohibition had been mentioned, he replied: "Yes."

He refused to amplify this remark or to say whether the prohibition discussion was concerned with the republican plank in the republican platform.

"We really spent the time in building up a little fire insurance for the republic," Burke added, "and we made it sure we'd make no mistakes at Chicago."

Hilles, equally non-committal, insisted that the details of the convention were discussed only "in general."

The group gathered in the president's private office shortly after 4 p. m. and departed after dusk. The president hurried out the side door to the mansion, to change for dinner with Secretary of Commerce Lamont tonight.

He had as his house guest Henry M. Robinson, of Los Angeles, long a close friend of the Hoovers and a frequent caller. Robinson, California financier, was at one time mentioned as successor to Andrew Mellon, former secretary of the treasury, and now ambassador in London.

Earlier in the day Mr. Hoover conferred with Theodore Clark, former secretary to Calvin Coolidge in the White House.

All three of the president's advisers insisted that a statement by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, that he would not attend the convention, had not been discussed.

"I can say categorically that we did not discuss that," Hilles said.

WALKER TO TAKE WITNESS STAND IN GRAFT PROBE

Seabury's Investigation of City 'Corruption' To Be Climaxed by Appearance; May Ask Removal.

NEW YORK, May 24.—(AP)—James J. Walker will meet Samuel Seabury face to face tomorrow in an oral duel which may alter the national political scene.

The eyes of the nation will be focused on the bar of the Hofstadter legislative investigation when the dapper mayor of New York finally confronts the painstaking counsel with an explanation of his financial dealings in the past six years and a defense of charges of graft and corruption in the municipal administration.

Newspapers have repeatedly forecast that Counsel Seabury will petition Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, leading candidate for the democratic nomination for president, to remove Mayor Walker on the basis of evidence collected during more than a year and that the governor will deliver his decision before the democratic national convention meets next month.

Governor Roosevelt is pictured by political authorities as being faced with a delicate decision in the event he is called on to take action—if he should unseat Mayor Walker he would face increased enmity from Tammany Hall; if he should not he might lose the support of some of his followers elsewhere.

Accusations.
Mayor Walker, whose income tax returns for the years 1928, 1929, 1930 and 1931 are under scrutiny by federal authorities, faces the following principal accusations:

That he accepted $28,535 gratuity in the form of bonds from a Wall Street house which was financing a taxicab company seeking favors of the city administration.

That he accepted $15,000 for "special legal services" from a theater holding corporation which employed regular counsel.

Verdict in Poole Case To Be Reached Tonight

Decision on the charges against First Assistant Chief of Police A. Lamar Poole and his reinstatement as head of the detective bureau was forecast Tuesday on the eve of the meeting of the police committee at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the station house.

The committee is meeting under court order, and Alderman Guy Coleman, member of the committee, will not participate in the deliberations nor will he be permitted to sit in the session. The committee was still divided two for conviction and two against Tuesday night, and unless one member changes and votes for conviction Poole will be cleared and reinstated, it was said.

GERMANS DEMAND 'HANDS-OFF' POLICY IN EASTERN AREA

Reichstag Committee
Warns Poland and Lithuania
To Respect Free
City of Danzig.

BY FREDERICK KUH.
BERLIN, May 24.—(UP)—The long-smouldering threat of trouble on the eastern frontier of Germany was brought into the open today when the reichstag foreign relations committee sharply warned Poland and Lithuania to keep "hands off" of the free city of Danzig and the territory of Memel.

The committee, led by fascist deputies, passed a resolution asking the government to take suitable precautions to prevent the violation of the rights of Germans living in these areas and to protect German interests.

The government was requested to "leave no doubt in the mind of Poland that the entire German nation would regard an attack on Danzig as an onslaught against Germany's vital right and would respond accordingly."

Another motion passed by the committee took cognizance of Chancellor Heinrich Brüning's assurance that the interests of Germans in Memel and Danzig will be protected against all encroachments. The vote was 11 to 10 in the favor of the motion.

The action of the committee followed many press reports that Poland had initiated disturbing military activity in the area of Danzig, and in the Danzig area. Some reports, which have been denied in both Warsaw and Berlin, were to the effect that Poland planned to occupy the port of Danzig, on the Baltic sea.

Danzig, which was German before the war, was made a free city at the last of the peace conference. It has 554 square miles and a population of 407,000. The League of Nations appointed the high commissioner, Danzig lies between East Prussia and the Polish corridor.

The situation in Memel recently has been acute, although the last election there was won by the German majority and eased the tension.

The reichstag foreign committee also passed a motion urging the government to hasten its efforts at the Geneva disarmament conference in an attempt to establish equality of armaments as a basis for all further negotiations. Germany was limited in arms by the Versailles treaty.

PROBE OF FORGERY WILL BE RENEWED

Committee Tells Boykin
It Will Pursue Quiz Into Docket Changes.

Investigation of alleged forged disbursements of cases on the police court docket of Recorder John L. Cone will be renewed following a conference Tuesday between Solicitor-General John A. Boykin and members of the police committee of council, it was learned following the meeting.

Recorder Cone discovered early in the year that the docket had been tampered with and that there were a number of apparent forgeries on the book. Investigation revealed more than a dozen cases in which there were said to be forged entries.

Nothing more was done by police officials about the investigation in the press of other matters until Tuesday, when Solicitor-General Boykin called the police committeemen to his office and asked what was being done to search out the responsible party or parties. Councilman G. Dan Bridges, chairman; Councilman Homer Foster and Alderman Guy Coleman, who conferred with Boykin, told the solicitor-general that they will at once order the investigation pursued to its conclusion, it was said.

Receivers Sought

For Growing Company

NEW YORK, May 24.—(UP)—In 1913 Alice Foota MacDougall opened a little tea room in New York. In a city where there is a restaurant on every corner and some between, her establishment was almost lost. But in that year Alice MacDougall showed a net profit of $888.

In 1920, after 14 years of serving tea, the MacDougall shops showed a year's profit of $1,386,351. Today receivers were asked for the four MacDougall corporations, not because they are insolvent, but because, the petition says, "Mrs. MacDougall is unable, because of advancing age and ill health, to devote her time as formerly to the restaurants."

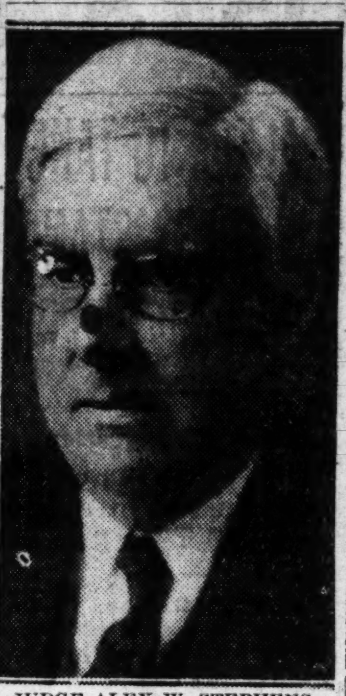

So the receivers will come in and, according to rumor, lower the prices, in order to attract a class of patronage that has fallen away.

JUDGE STEPHENS ASKS RE-ELECTION

Court of Appeals Post

Braswell Mentioned.

Announcement of Judge Alexander W. Stephens that he would be a candidate to succeed himself on the court of appeals, a report that Lewis P.

JUDGE ALEX W. STEPHENS.

Chick, of Walton, would oppose Judge E. L. Rainey as a candidate for membership on the prison commission and a new name, that of J. D. Braswell, of Athens, in the court of appeals contest, constituted the developments in state politics Tuesday.

Governor Russell continued to consider his choice of a successor to the late Supreme Court Justice James K. Hines and indications were that the appointment would not be made before Thursday. The governor Monday held a conference with the justices and it was generally understood that he would pick the Hines successor from a list of nominees supplied by the court.

Judge Stephens, who is unopposed for re-election to the court of appeals, went on that bench in 1918. He mailed his application to enter the primary Tuesday along with a check to the entrance fee.

Friends of Chick, the blind member of the 1929 regular and 1931 extra sessions of the general assembly, said that he would qualify as a candidate against Judge Rainey in the next few days.

Friends at the statehouse Tuesday said that J. D. Braswell, of Athens, widely known north Georgia lawyer, would qualify soon for the vacancy caused by the announcement that Judge O. H. B. Bloodworth, of the court of appeals, would retire. Lucien P. Goodrich and John B. Guerry have already qualified in this race.

Eugene Talmadge, commissioner of agriculture and a candidate for governor, continued his series of commencement speeches with an address to the graduating class of the Tallapoosa school Tuesday night.

LA FOLLETTE ASSAILS
HOOVER AID POLICIES

NEW YORK, May 24.—(Special.) The New York Times today published the following under a Washington date line, giving the most recent details of Senator La Follette's attack upon President Hoover's present attitude toward unemployment relief, as compared with his war-time views on the feeding of starving children in foreign nations:

"In an address at the concluding meeting of the conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, La Follette took Secretary Wilbur to task for stating in an address recently in Philadelphia that our children are apt to profit rather than suffer from the depression."

"Quoting from a report by Dr. Carl ed Schweinitz, who has charge of unemployment relief in Philadelphia, Senator La Follette said that during 11 days in April no relief funds were available in Philadelphia and that during that period many families were obliged to subsist on scraps of dry bread, carrots and such other vegetables and a few fish, begged or picked up on the streets and docks. Of those to whom relief was being extended, he said, more than 10 per cent were nursing mothers."

"What are the children of those mothers likely to profit from the depression? he asked. And what will be the heritage health strength of the next generation if this condition is to continue?"

"He declared that the attitude of the administration toward federal relief was inconsistent with the policy recommended by Mr. Hoover and adopted for the relief of the children of all nations following the World War."

"I can see no vital difference in the problem presented by a starving child or a man out of work walking the streets of Liege, Belgium, in 1919, or the streets of an American city in the spring of 1932," he added.

Marcon Skipper Tells Of Check for $50,000

NEW YORK, May 24.—(AP)—The Daily News, in beginning the publication in installments of the log of the yacht Marcon, quotes its skipper, Captain Frank H. Lackmann, as questioning details of the confession of John Hughes Curtis, Lindbergh intermediary.

The yacht Marcon, owned by Charles Consolvo, was used by Curtis in his kidnapping "negotiations."

Lackmann said Curtis had shown him a check for $50,000. The check, he related, bore Lindbergh's signature, but he was not permitted to see the name of the person to whose order the check was drawn.

"I am sure," said Lackmann, "that Lindbergh believed implicitly in Curtis' faith, and I am certain that this belief must have been based on some evidence more tangible than the supposed confession would indicate."

In Hopewell, in response to inquiries, Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf, state police head, said:

"In an effort to help you clear up points which seem to be in doubt in your minds, it is stated that at no time was any check for $50,000 made out nor exhibited to anyone in connection with the Curtis negotiations."

78 Gold Star Mothers

First in France in '32

PARIS, May 24.—(AP)—Seventy-eight American Gold Star mothers, the first group to make a pilgrimage of the battlefields in 1932, arrived in France today aboard the Leviathan after a pleasant crossing which left all of them in good health.

They were met at Cherbourg by United States army officers and a corps of trained nurses and were brought to Paris in a special train.

As a result, Representatives Wesley L. Disney, democrat, and William L. Coyle, republican, were held to be legally entitled to their seats for the first Oklahoma and thirtieth Pennsylvania districts, respectively.

PARIS, May 24.—(AP)—President Albert Lebrun tonight virtually designated Edouard Herriot, the radical socialist leader, as first choice to form a new French cabinet.

This became apparent tonight when the president called the noted liberal leader into conference on prime problems, particularly of foreign affairs, and held a half hour conversation.

After this, the outgoing premier, Andre Tardieu, and the retiring finance minister, Pierre Lalande, met with Herriot and the president, to submit to M. Herriot their viewpoint on the foreign and domestic financial situation.

It was understood the details of the formation of the forthcoming government, which probably will be left to M. Herriot by virtue of the radical socialist victories in the recent French election, were not discussed. They will be left for later conferences, it was understood.

2 YEARS OF SLUMBERIS ENDED BY DEATH

GOLDSBORO, N. C., May 24.—An illness that kept E. A. Pate in a condition resembling slumber for 12 years ended today with the death of this well-to-do 57-year-old farmer at his home near here. Stricken when he was 45 years old, Pate resisted all efforts to arouse him, except to an extent sufficient for him to eat sparingly at meal times. Physicians diagnosed his illness as a form of sleeping sickness. His death was discovered at noon today when a member of the family carried his meal to the sick room.

BAPTISTS LAY PLANSFOR $300,000 DRIVE

Southern Baptist Home and Foreign Missions To Share in Campaign Funds.

Definite plans for raising $300,000 as a special emergency fund for the Southern Baptist home and foreign missions were laid at a meeting of a campaign committee here Tuesday. It was agreed to divide the fund on a basis of 36 2-3 per cent for home missions and 63 2-3 per cent for foreign missions.

The special committee, which was authorized at the Southern Baptist convention in St. Petersburg, Fla., May 13 to May 17, was called by Dr. J. B. Lawrence, chairman, who related the purpose of the movement, which is designed to obtain money during the summer months when there usually is a slump in receipts. The extra offering, it was explained, is to be over and above the regular offerings to the co-operative program for the churches and is in no way to interfere with regular weekly donations.

The committee voted to set Sunday, June 19, as a day when simultaneous offerings will be made by the 23,731 churches in the convention, which have a combined membership of 3,850,278. For the churches who cannot make the offering at that time, the period will be continued through July.

Plans for raising the fund call for extensive use of the Baptist state papers, the secular press, radio and other means of publicity. Those present on the committee were: Dr. T. B. Ray, Richmond, acting executive secretary of the foreign mission board; Miss Kathleen Mallory, Birmingham, secretary of the W. M. U. Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist convention; Dr. Fred P. Brown, Knoxville, president of the Southern Baptist convention; Dr. J. J. Van Ness, Nashville, executive secretary of the Sunday school board; Dr. John T. Henderson, Knoxville, general secretary of the Brotherhood of the South; Dr. Joseph T. Watts, Baltimore, general secretary of the Maryland Baptist General Association; Dr. Charles E. Madry, Raleigh, general secretary of the North Carolina Baptist state convention; James W. Merritt, Atlanta, executive secretary of the Georgia Baptist state convention; J. H. Anderson, Knoxville, chairman central committee, and Walter M. Gilmore, Knoxville, publicity director of promotion committee.

Predicting that many of the smaller Methodist institutions of learning in Georgia will be forced to close unless remedial measures are taken, Harvey W. Cox, president of Emory University, told a survey commission in a meeting Tuesday that several of the members should be merged. The meeting was held at Wesley Memorial church and Dr. Edward F. Cook, chairman of the South Georgia conference board of education, presided. Commenting on the recommendations of Dr. Cox, Dr. Orville A. Park, of Macon, said that many young men and women of the Methodist faith are now attending institutions of other denominations since these latter

GRADUATES OF G. M. A. TO HEAR DR. DOWELL

Commencement exercises for the graduating class of Georgia Military Academy will be held in the auditorium of the institution at College Park at 10 o'clock. Following the exercises, Dr. Spright Dowell, president of Mercer University, will deliver the commencement address, and Cadet Emerson Ham, of Bowden, will make the valedictory address.

Following the annual competitive drills held at the academy Tuesday afternoon, the alumni annual dinner to members of the senior class was held at the Atlanta Athletic Club, followed by the final full dress dance in the academy gymnasium Tuesday night. Company B won the unit drill while the individual competition was won by Cadet Robert Stephens, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Commencement exercises got under way last Saturday and continued Monday and Tuesday, with presentation of trophies and medals to outstanding cadets. Among those receiving such tokens of distinction were Cadets Jetton Padgett, most valuable athlete; William Fuller, Winter Haven, Fla., high point man in the field meet; William O. Brewster Jr., College Park, junior declamation; Cadet Robertson, of Kansas City, Kan., junior oration; Cadet Harvey, of Beckley, W. Va., senior oration; Cecil Pendleton, master cadet; George Kane, Atlanta, best cadet officer; Cecil Elrod, Murfreesboro, Tenn., great service to corps; N. R. Evans, Chattanooga, greatest progress in military work; Thomas Jenkins, Mount Airy, N. C., highest moral excellence; Charles Mount, College Park, neatest cadet, and Cecil Elrod, most popular cadet.

Just a Few Words About Quality and Cash

Every diamond ring in our store is free of carbon spots, every diamond ring we sell is blue white in color. No jeweler in Atlanta has cornered the market in quality diamonds.

We are making no absurd, fanciful statements in our ads that we alone have the best quality diamonds. Mr. and Mrs. Public cannot be fooled with fulsome self-praise. However, we are so absolutely sure our diamond prices are the lowest in the world we will refund your money cheerfully if you can buy cheaper elsewhere.

Hamilton, Elgin and Waltham wrist watches are of the same quality if sold by the most exclusive jewelry store or by a small jeweler located on side street, the only difference is the price you pay, the ultra-exclusive jewelry store must charge Mr. and Mrs. Public more in order to meet their enormous overhead expense.

Remember our advice, shop here, shop there, shop everywhere, then buy where you find the prices are lowest.

Backhead Fifty Club was entertained at a barbecue Tuesday night at the home of C. A. Puckett, on Roswell road. Judge Virlyn B. Moore, of the Fulton superior court, spoke as co-operative and unselfish civic work.

FINLAND AND GREECE SIGN DEBT CONTRACTS

BY CHARLES M. McCANN.
WASHINGTON, May 24—(UP)—Finland and Greece today led the parade of nations which are due during the next 10 days to sign agreements to repay, in 10 yearly installments, the war debt payments which the United States postponed under the one-year moratorium of last summer. The Finnish and Grecian ministers signed, at the treasury department, contracts to refund the deferred sums. Finland's contract calls for a total of $312,295; Greece's for $1,108,080. Interest is set at 4 per cent a year.

It was announced in London that the British government had authorized its ambassador here to sign a similar contract, calling for a total of $159,520,000. France, with $50,000,000, and Italy, with $14,706,125,

Harrelson, president, and E. R. Sweet, chairman of the current expenditures committee, were unequivocally on record opposing the change.

Officials Condemn Move.
More than two-thirds of city council, backed by Mayor Key, oppose the change. John F. Scott, alderman from the second ward and vice president of the Atlanta Federation of Trades and Fred K. Stephens, president of the City and County Public Service Employees' Association, have joined hands in condemnation of the proposed selection of tax assessors by the people. All feel that such a plan would react to the detriment of the "every-day citizen and also would be reflected in curtailing the already culled receipts of the city, thus further embarrassing the city government and the school system.

The Rev. H. J. Penn, vice president of the board of education, and the following other members were those who joined Harrelson, Sweet and Gilliam in condemning the proposal:

Mrs. Julia O'Keefe Nelson, Frank R. Fling, T. N. Ciyatt, and William C. Slate.

Following are excerpts from the statements of the new opponents of the board:

Penn: "I do not think we should change the system. Tax assessors should be free from the politics. A change would be unwise."

Nelson: "Business and labor oppose the change. It is unwise, I believe, and I shall cast my own ballot against it."

Fling: "I feel such a change would not react to the best interests of the city, and would cut the school budget or force an increase in taxes."

Ciyatt: "It appears to me to be a bad idea. I can see no real reason for the change, and believe the people of Atlanta feel the same way."

Warren Hits "Reactionaries."
V. P. Warren, chairman of the citizens' committee which successfully opposed the recall of Key, appealed to voters to again come to the assistance of taxpayers and prevent "an influx of reactionaries."

"Unless we take immediate steps today to prevent selection of a few choice candidates of those whom we defeated in the recall, Atlanta can again expect to be dominated by a minority group for its own selfish interests," he warned. "This is no time for equivocation. Citizens must take an interest in this election unless they are willing to be controlled by this faction, which is pledged to nothing but its own selfish service at the expense of the taxpayers."

Candidates Recommended.
The committee is recommending the following candidates for the consideration of voters: Councilmen—First, R. H. Cobb; second, Max Cuba; third, Homer Hannah; sixth, Claude Barnwell; ninth, Raleigh Drennon; tenth, Nelson Spratt; eleventh, George B. Lyle; twelfth, Walter Sutton; thirteenth, Frank Wilson. Aldermen: Sixth, W. W. Waits. School board: Tenth, Ernest Brewer; twelfth, George C. Garner. City electrician: Carroll McGaughey. City warden: J. Newton Landers.

Women Oppose Change.
Text of the statement by Mrs. Sinclair Jacob, president of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, in opposing the selection of tax assessors by the people, follows:
"The Atlanta League of Women Voters wishes to call the attention of the public to the question which has been very suddenly placed upon the ballot of the city primary. It is proposed to give the voters an opportunity to vote on whether they wish to elect the three tax assessors. The league would naturally take a position against such an election as it is contrary to two fundamental principles of government for which the league has long stood, e. g., the short ballot and the election of policy determining officials and the appointment of administrative officials."

"The league suggests that in emergencies, voters should be guided in their votes by sound principles of government. The two principles stated above are vitally important and are accepted by most people who are informed on governmental matters and practice in the best governed communities in the country."

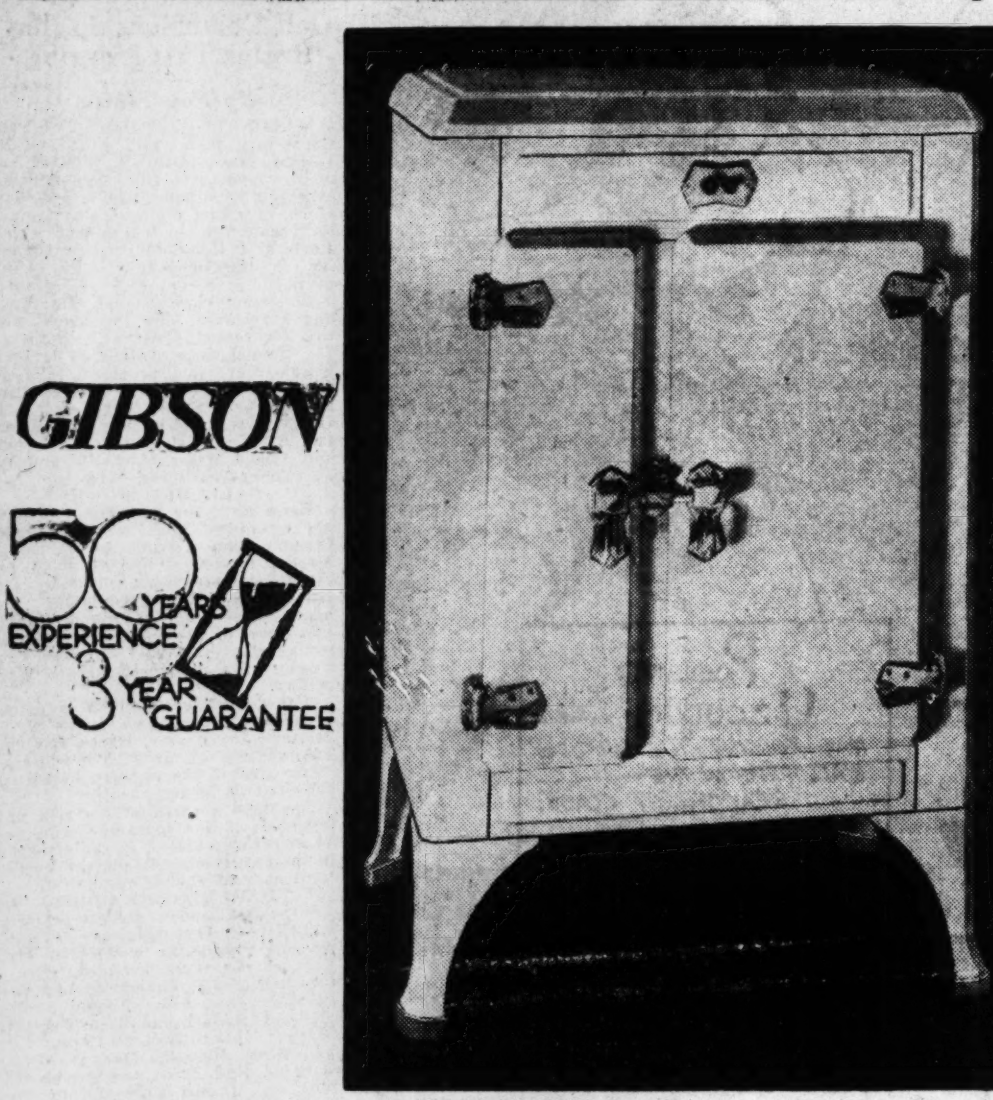

Last Minute Appeals Made.
Several candidates Tuesday issued the following last-minute appeals for votes as the time for the ballot casting neared:

Rogers, candidate for council, seventh ward: "I am offering on my record of constructive, progressive service, and promise a continuance of my efforts in behalf of an economical and business-like administration of city affairs, urge my friends not to be overconfident, but to visit the polls today."

Brooks, for council, twelfth ward: "As your first candidate to an-

Gomez Allows Three Hits, Fans 13 as Yanks Defeat A's; Grandison and Hay Win Pro-Amateur Title in Macon Meet

GOMEZ ALLOWS BUT THREE HITS AS YANKS

Ruth Hits Eleventh Homer Off Walberg in 3-1 Victory.

NEW YORK, May 24.—(AP)—Veron Gomez, southpaw Yankee pitcher, turned in his best job of the season today to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics 3 to 1 for his third triumph over the 1931 American league champions and his seventh in eight starts. Gomez allowed only three hits and one unearned run in a brilliant mound duel with Rube Walberg, and struck out 13 rivals, one more than any other major league pitcher has whiffed in a single game in this season. He granted only one walk.

Walberg did well enough in the eight innings he threw, allowing the Yankees only four hits. But the first of these blows was Babe Ruth's eleventh home run of the season, and just came in the first inning and was just enough to win the ball game.

In the third the Yankees got a second run when Dykes threw wild after taking Ryd's grounder and the run reached second. Joe Sewell singled him home. Ben Chapman scored the third tally in the sixth, opening with a single and stealing second for his seventh theft. An infield out and Larry's long fly sent him home.

Chapman tossed away a shutout in the next frame when he made a two-base miff of Al Simmons' fly and Jimmy Fox's single and a force play at second brought in the lone Philadelphia tally.

DETROIT, May 24.—(AP)—The Tigers' pitcher, who had been in the eighth inning and had to be relieved, Ray Dandridge, went on to a 6-0 victory over the St. Louis Browns today. Whitlow, who had been in the eighth inning, stopped the Browns' rally by fanning Burns and Campbell.

The Browns got 11 hits off Dandridge, but the Tigers' six blows were more than enough. One of them was on Ray Dandridge, who had been in the eighth inning, who had been in the eighth inning, who had been in the eighth inning.

Burgoo King Points for His Third Big Test

And now approaches another Saturday and another test for Burgoo King, the horse who did what only two horses before him had done—capture the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness.

This time it is the Withers. Only Sir Barton, the 1919 sensation, was able to capture all three of them, and thus prove himself a real horse at any distance and versatile enough to meet any requirement.

It is quite a test for any horse, this meeting the exacting demands of three races at different distances. The derby is run at a mile and a quarter. The Preakness is a mile and three-sixteenths. The Withers is a mile.

It remains now to see whether the great son of Bubbling Over can sprint the mile. In running the mile and a quarter and the mile and three-sixteenths there is a heavy drain on stamina and staying power. The winner in those races had to have speed and stamina.

In the Withers the sprinters will have their chance. There were a lot of good horses in the Kentucky Derby. But they were good at a mile. That extra quarter found the pounding heart and the pulsing blood unable to supply enough energy to drive the hoofs faster and faster down the last quarter of a mile. And it was there that Burgoo King, the stayer, left them and came home to glory.

The Withers is different not only as to distance, but as to weight. In the stake races the horses must carry 126 pounds. In the Withers the horses carry but 113 pounds, another aid to speed.

Universe will be a real threat to Burgoo King, as will Tick On. Economic led Burgoo King for a mile in the Kentucky Derby. Universe defeated Economic in the Wood Memorial, which was a mile and 70 yards. Tick On is improving. There are other colts eligible who can go for a mile.

The Withers is an old event. It had its inaugural in 1874, one year before the Kentucky Derby. And Aristides, "The Little Red Horse," who won the first derby, was also a Withers winner.

At any rate, it looks as if an extremely interesting afternoon is ahead for Burgoo King, son of Bubbling Over and winner of the derby and the Preakness.

MAX SCHMELING STILL GROWING.
It is interesting to note that Max Schmeling is still growing. He is growing everywhere except up and in waist circumference. His waist is still 33 inches, what it was two years ago, and his height remains unchanged, 6 feet 1 inch. The latest figures on the champion, as compared with those of two years ago, are:

1930.	Age	1932.
24 years	26 years
17 1/2 in.	17 1/2 in.
12 1/2 in.	12 1/2 in.
7 1/2 in.	8 in.
15 in.	16 in.
42 in.	42 in.
45 in.	47 in.
33 in.	33 in.
23 in.	23 1/2 in.
15 in.	16 in.
7 1/2 in.	8 in.
6 ft. 1 in.	6 ft. 1 in.
168 pounds	192 pounds

Schmeling still figures as the best bet over Jack Sharkey, although there is nothing at all sure about it. The fight should be one of the finest in years. And the Sharkey man has an excellent chance to bring back the title to America, if that seems important to you.

ANOTHER GOLF HAZARD.
There was a gentleman playing golf at Piedmont park on Tuesday morning who returned home with a new complaint about unnatural hazards.

It seems that the young man has former classmates visiting in the city and what with rich foods and the like he was suffering Tuesday morning from a severe case of the Little Jitters. In fact, he was bordering on the Big Jitters, which is a very terrible disease to have when one is filling a golf engagement.

He went ahead, however, and was managing fairly well. He reached the second green and needed a fairly short putt for a par. Just as he leaned over to putt, the soldiers, here for the horse show which concluded Monday, fired off a very loud, earth-shaking field piece in practice. The young man's nerves leaped with him and the putt went away off somewhere.

SHARKEY 'NUTS,' CHAMPION SAYS; CALLS GOR SOFT

German Warns Sailor To Be Careful and Look for Real Battle.

By Max Schmeling,
Heavyweight Champion of the World.
(Copyright, 1932, by the North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.)
KINGSTON, N. Y., May 24.—I am not expert at American slang, but I think Jack Sharkey went from "nut" to "nuts" at the sportsman's dinner last week when he made that crack credited to him about me being "his meat."

When some of the boys asked him how he was getting along, he is quoted as saying, as he nodded over toward where I was sitting: "Well, I have had my soup and fish, but there is my meat."

The fellow surely is "nuts" if he thinks I am going to prove easy meat for him. He ought to be more careful of his diet. They tell me Sharkey is used to good living. So I take it he is used to tender steak. He didn't find me so tender when we met the first time, and I am convinced that Sharkey, in his own mind, knows he would have been licked if he hadn't landed that foul blow.

BETTER PREPARE.
If Sharkey is planning a feast the night of June 21 he'd better prepare for it now. The kind of meat he is feeding him in his training camp in the way of sparring partners isn't going to make him fancy a tough fare later on.

Compared to the fellows I have here in camp, like Abe Callahan, Lipchitz, Jack Shaw and even young Abe Salzman, who is pretty green but tough and strong and willing, Sharkey has an easy way to work out. One of his sparring partners can't stand up for more than a round with Jack, I hear.

I am much interested in Sharkey's training—almost as much as I am in my own. There seems to be too general an opinion that I am going to knock out Sharkey; that he will be easy for me. What has become of the cry about me being afraid to fight Jack?

When I signed to meet him—I insisted on being called "Max"—I was for me those who were saying Schmeling was afraid to meet Sharkey because Jack would win easily began to change their tune.

EXCUSES.
I looked Sharkey over at the sportsman's dinner—we were sitting at the same long table, but several yards away from each other—and he appeared to be in good condition. They told me he was pretty fat when he started his training. I only hope he is in fine shape when I meet him. I don't want any excuses this time.

A good, hard, tough battle will suit me. I don't want a flakey fight. Sharkey is in tip-top form for once. I want to win this fight in a manner that will give the boys something to write home about.

Where Jack Sharkey is training, visited Greenhill Lodge today to look over my camp. Gus thought very well of the layout.

"I'm never too old to learn," said Gus as he made his tour of inspection. He came here today because I was doing some public training. Gus said he didn't want to think he was spying. He is welcome to see me at work. So is Jack Sharkey, for that matter. But he has no use for frightening Jack too soon.

Moody and Wood
Win in Doubles
AUTEUIL, France, May 24.—(AP)—Maurice Moody and Sidney Wood Jr., ranking American champions in the French tennis championships, made their first appearance in mixed doubles today, defeated Frau Dros Centers and Franz Marejka, 9-11, 6-3, 6-0.

The French audience in Roland Garros stadium was as usual, and Wood made a shaky start against the Dutch-Austrian combination. Wood was wild and Mrs. Moody could not get her service to working, losing it three times in the long first set.

AUTEUIL, France, May 24.—(AP)—Sidney Wood Jr. and Gregory Mangin, American pair, moved into the quarter-final round of the French tennis championships today when they scored a four-set victory over the Grandduellus brothers, Pierre and Jean, of Egypt, 8-6, 8-6, 14-8, 6-3.

Henri Cochet and Jacques Brugnon, veteran French combination, also progressed to the quarter-finals with a 6-2, 6-2, 6-1 victory over another French pair, Jean Mital and Francis.

FOUR TWOSOMES THE FOR SECOND PLACE IN EVENT

Southeastern P. G. A. Golf Championship Play Begins This Morning.

By Roy White.
MACON, Ga., May 24.—Pete Grandison, Woodward, Ala., and P. L. Hay, Macon amateur, won the annual pro-amateur golf championship here this afternoon with a best ball of 70, in a preliminary to the annual southeastern pro tournament which starts at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning on the Idlehour Country Club course.

Following close behind Grandison and Hay were four two-somes who tied for second place with scores of 71. Second place was shared between Frank Stevenson, Americus, and S. M. Solomon, Macon; George Slingsland, Greensboro, N. C., and T. I. Harris, Macon; H. G. Picard, Charleston, S. C., and J. T. Webb, Macon; and Arnold Mears, Nashville, and W. L. (Young) Stribling, Macon.

RAIL OFF FORM.
Ernie Ball, the 20-year-old defending champion from the East Lake Country Club, Atlanta, and C. Snow, Macon, amateur, required a 75 for the 18-hole preliminary Tuesday afternoon. Ball was not playing with his usual accuracy and found trouble on several of the holes, but appeared not to be worried. He expressed confidence of a much better score Wednesday.

The defending champion is paired with Freddie Bryant, Charlotte, N. C., pro, and Joe Massey, Macon, amateur, and will tee off at 9:25 Wednesday in the first of the 72-hole competition for the title he now holds.

The field with 31 of the best professionals in the southern states and 34 amateurs entered, is the strongest in the past few years and the tournament appears to be a good one.

DAHLBENDER GOOD.
Gene Dahlbender, Atlanta amateur, and Clarence Owens, Greenville, S. C., led the parade in which the Gate City entries were included, with a best ball of 72. Others who followed in close order were Jimmy Livingston, Ingleside, and Tom Dempsey, Macon; Howard Beckett, Capital City, and Scott Russell, Macon; George Sargent, East Lake, and George Nottingham, Macon; Bill Wilson, Birmingham, and Bruce Jones, Macon; and Fairley Clark, Savannah, and E. R. Hart, Macon.

W. L. (Young) Stribling, who won a fight Monday night in Winston-Salem, N. C., drove through the country and was there the last minute in place. L. Stribling, who won a fight Monday night in Winston-Salem, N. C., drove through the country and was there the last minute in place. L. Stribling, who won a fight Monday night in Winston-Salem, N. C., drove through the country and was there the last minute in place.

Stribling's entry drew a part of the gallery but Ernie Ball, the blonde youth from East Lake Country Club, was the center of attraction Tuesday afternoon. He treated the crowd to a real golf in places but on other holes it was far from championship golf. His driving was up to its standard, but his iron was off line and lacked distance for the most part.

FAVORITES.
Gene McCarthy, the veteran from Columbus, S. C.; Grandison, Tom Penna, Pensacola, Fla.; Frank Stevenson, Americus; George Slingsland, Greensboro, N. C.; H. G. Picard, Charleston; Raymond Atkins, Greensboro; Arnold Mears, Nashville; Ernie Ball and George Sargent, are the talk of the Macon 72-hole tournament and a score of 285 is considered a good chance for first place.

Danny Goss, president of the association, and George Morris, the editor of the Macon News, are assisting by Ed Risenman and Jim McFerrin.

Other scores: Charles Hall, Birmingham, and Dan Hogan, Macon, 76; Dan Goss, Highland, 76; George Taylor, Macon, 75; Allan Stewart, Sanford, 75; B. D. Kingman, Macon, 75; Eugene McCarthy, Columbus, 75; George Slingsland, Greensboro, 75; H. G. Picard, Charleston, 75; Raymond Atkins, Greensboro, 75; Arnold Mears, Nashville, 75; Ernie Ball and George Sargent, 75.

Two new faces appeared in Knoxville's lineup, Jack Shephard replacing Rusty Stewart at second hole, with young Bill Lindstrom, another kid picked up from Chicago sandlots, taking over the third hole. Lindstrom, like his fellow townsman, Laskowski, hit a home run and made a great throw to the plate in the second to cut off Chatham's big guns for Knoxville.

Today's victory put Knoxville into a tie with New Orleans for seventh place.

MILLER LEAVES FOR MARATHON
Ray Miller, young Georgia Tech marathon runner, left yesterday for Baltimore, where he will compete in the Baltimore marathon to be run there on Saturday.

MILLER IN GOOD CONDITION
Miller was in good condition when he left and hopes to make a good time. He has run the 26-mile distance twice in around 2:52. On Grand field there has been placed a bronze tablet, but there is no commemorative medal. It is next to the football memorial tablet.

WARRENVILLE BEATS OGEESCHES BY 14-0
LOUISVILLE, Ga., May 24.—Warrenville beat Ogeeches 14 to 0 today, shutting the Ogeeches out completely. Menchen pitched wonderful ball for Warrenville, allowing only six scattered hits. The score was 14 to 0.

MATCH PLAY BEGINS IN SEARS TOURNEY
Match play in the first round of the Sears-Roebuck tournament opened Monday with a large field participating. Approximately one-third of the field, which includes nine flights, is expected to finish by Wednesday, with heaviest play scheduled over the week-end. Match play continues through Sunday.

WOMEN TO PLAY SEMI-FINALS TODAY
Members of the Atlanta Women's Golf Association will play the semi-final round of the regular monthly match play tournament today at Capital City Country Club. Finals will be played Thursday. The semi-finals were postponed from last week on account of threatening weather but Mrs. O. B. Keeler, president, says play will be held rain or shine.

FORMER MAYOR SIMS WILL OPPOSE MOORE

Atlanta Announces Candidacy for Senatorial Seat From 35th District.

Former Mayor Walter A. Sims and former Councilman Wiley L. Moore Tuesday were seen as opponents in the September 14 state primary for the senatorial position from the thirty-fifth Georgia district.

A third avowed candidate, Thomas C. Partridge, has not yet qualified. Sims said Tuesday he would seek the position for which Moore announced several days ago. The latter qualified Tuesday afternoon, paying his entrance fee at the office of Hewitt W. Chambers, secretary of the county democratic executive committee.

Another candidate, George P. Whitman, of College Park, Tuesday qualified against Judge Gus H. Howard, of Fulton county superior court. Judge Howard has not yet entered the race to succeed himself.

M. L. Chambers, prominent real estate man, entered the race for representative against Luther Skiff, veteran member of the assembly from Fulton county.

The thirty-fifth district is composed of Fulton, Clayton and Henry counties.

Edgar Watkins, who was mentioned prominently as a possible opponent of Congressman Robert C. W. Ransome, from the fifth Georgia district, withdrew his name from further consideration Tuesday when he addressed a letter to A. Whitaker, of Conyers, saying he could not accede to a petition from citizens in that section and enter the race.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL TO MRS. WADSWORTH

A broken hip and internal injuries received last Saturday when she was struck by an automobile proved fatal early Tuesday morning to Mrs. Ada Wadsworth, 71 years old, wife of the late Dr. W. W. Wadsworth and sister of George W. Stevens, reporter of the state supreme court. Mrs. Wadsworth was taken to Grady hospital for emergency treatment and was later taken to a private hospital, where she died.

L. W. Leake, of 637 Sherwood road, driver of the machine which struck Mrs. Wadsworth at Fair and Grant street, told police she walked from behind a street car directly into the path of his car. He was unable to stop, he said. Police made a case of reckless driving against Leake and he was released on his own recognizance. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 o'clock this morning at the graveside in West View cemetery, with the Rev. J. B. Allen officiating. Burial, Bond & Condon are in charge.

Mrs. Wadsworth, who had been a resident of Atlanta for many years and resided at 410 Bryan street, S. E., is survived by one other brother, W. Sidney Stevens, and a sister, Mrs. Frances S. Mitchell, both of Atlanta.

BIRTHS

The following families have announced births:

Gilson, 18 Fifteenth street, boy; K. Avera Sr., 405 Fourth street, N. E., boy; C. W. Jones, 475 Whiteford avenue, N. E., girl; J. Horneich, 19 Clark street, boy; S. A. Larsen, 489 North avenue, N. E., girl; N. Angier, 40 Tenth street, N. W., girl; D. B. Sawford, 311 Bass street, S. E., girl; Neil McKay Spivey, 1617 Lakewood avenue, a girl, April 3; B. I. Sturdivant Seeking Author Of 'Death Note' Sent Hannah

A reproduction of the death threat note addressed to Homer R. Hannah, candidate for council from the third ward. The missive was turned over to Chief of Police T. O. Sturdivant Tuesday night at the latter's request. He plans a sweeping investigation in an effort to find the writer.

Chief of Police T. O. Sturdivant Tuesday night assigned two crack investigators to the job of ascertaining, if possible, who was the author of the death threat note penned to Homer R. Hannah, third ward councilman candidate. He promised an exhaustive investigation of the futile effort at intimidation.

Sturdivant obtained the note from The Constitution and then turned it over to the detective bureau.

Hannah, who is opposing Councilman Ed L. Almond for nomination to that post in the primary today, asserted he would "never quit the race." The letter warned him to quit or he would be "fixed so you can't run for office no more."

Although the letter was dated May 18, Hannah explained that he had held it in a futile effort to learn who wrote it. He decided to submit it to a group of friends Monday night, and The Constitution carried its text Tuesday morning.

Chief Sturdivant became interested in the case and decided to seek the author with a promise that if the "person who wrote it is found he will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law."

"I do not believe the people of the ward will condone any such tactics," Hannah said Tuesday night. "I never intended to quit the race, and certainly would not after such a threat. I can not conceive of how anyone could be so cowardly as to pen such a missive and not sign his name."

FLOODS CONTINUE TO HARASS ENGLAND

LONDON, May 24.—(AP)—Floods continued to harass the midland plains of England today, wrecking further communication lines, and increasing the death list to four persons.

Floods started last Saturday. The Prince of Wales' farm at Lenton, Nottinghamshire, is the latest of midland estates to be isolated and partly covered by water.

The city of Nottingham itself is practically surrounded. Carby power stations are threatened with inundation. Ten persons have been injured in an explosion at Derby believed to have been caused by inundation of a gas main.

AUSTRIAN PRETENDER REPORTED ENGAGED

BUDAPEST, Hungary, May 24.—(AP)—Royalist circles here were authority today for reports that Prince Otto, of Hapsburg, pretender to the throne of Hungary, and Princess Maria, of Bavaria, are about to become engaged.

The princess, who is 18 years old, is a daughter of Prince Franz, brother of Prince Rupprecht, head of the house.

The family of the bride-to-be lives the greater part of the year in a castle at Sarvar, Hungary. The princess speaks Hungarian like a native, which is important in view of Otto's claim to the throne.

4,000 CHINESE REBELS ROUTED BY JAPANESE

HARBIN, Manchuria, May 24.—(AP)—Japanese troops routed 4,000 Chinese rebels today in a sweeping drive that took the Japanese into Hulan, about 40 miles north of Harbin.

The insurgents, whose advance had threatened Harbin, fled to the northwest, but left 500 captives, three armored cars and several field guns with the Japanese.

The attackers, under General Shigeru Honjo, commander in chief of the Japanese army in Manchuria, had seven wounded as the only casualties after the battle. Japanese airplanes inflicted heavy losses on the Chinese, Japanese authorities said.

BOND MADE $220,000 FOR FORGERY SUSPECT

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 24.—(AP)—County Solicitor L. D. Howell today filed 11 more charges of forgery and uttering forgery against Richard Gillman, making a total of 22, and at the same time, bonds under which the alleged forger could get temporary freedom were doubled, bringing the total to $220,000.

Driving Club Opens for Summer; Dr. McRae Is Elected President

Dr. Floyd W. McRae was elected president of the Piedmont Driving Club's summer opening Tuesday night, succeeding Senator John S. Cohen. Dr. McRae formerly was vice president.

Other officers of the club selected were: Frank C. Owen, vice president; N. Baxter Maddox, Reginald Fleet and Dr. William E. Campbell Jr., new members of the board of directors. Henry B. Troutman and Norris H. Broyles were re-elected to the board.

Colorful Japanese lanterns strung on invisible wires and lighted by electric bulbs, outlined the picturesque terrace of the club Tuesday evening, and added an exotic and attractive note to the informal summer opening of this popular rendezvous, where society assembled to dine and dance and to inaugurate the 1932 season. Luxuriant palms and ferns were bunched in the corners of the terrace, and the tables were placed thereon, and were decorated with pastel-shaded flowers. The green flower boxes bordering the terrace were filled with flowering vines and growing plants, the brilliant-hued flowers lifting their heads among the foliage. The exquisite Dorothy Perkins roses were in full bloom on the terrace, and the brilliant-hued flowers forming an effective background for the diners and dancers. This annual social event is always timed for the fourth week in May to correspond with the blossoming of this particular rose, upon which is focused attention and admiration, because it lends itself so advantageously to the summer opening of the Piedmont Driving Club.

Hundreds of pretty women, gowned in flowered chiffon frocks, and handsome cavaliers wearing the conventional dark coat and cream-colored trousers, the favorite costume chosen by the feminine and masculine contingent to be worn at summer social affairs, danced to the tuneful melodies played by an imported orchestra until long after the midnight hour.

Preceding the serving of supper at 8:30 o'clock the business session was held, and was presided over by Senator John S. Cohen, the election of officers featuring the session. The officers, board of directors and their wives were seated at a special table and elected Senator John S. Cohen, Dr. Floyd McRae, Frank C. Owen, Henry B. Troutman, Thomas B. Payne, Hugh D. Carter Jr. and Norris Broyles.

Congential Party. Composing a congenial party were Misses Frances Gentry, Margaret Anderson, Eugenia Candler, Elizabeth Thompson, Marie Lanier, of West Point, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fisch, Dr. Caldwell Holliday, R. D. Cole III, Epps Brown, William Ward and Leek Marshall.

Dr. and Mrs. Lon Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Rembert Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. V. Giam Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Willett and Mr. and Mrs. Turner Jones dined together. Mr. and Mrs. Everard Richardson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Watts, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Lena Knox and Aquila Moore, and Wylie Arnold, Leonard Richardson and Jack Tway were together.

Mr. Mrs. Woodward

To Honor Visitors.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lawley Woodward, who have made their home on Saulters road, Homewood, since removing to Birmingham from Atlanta, are to have some very charming visitors the first of June—W. T. Castang and his daughter, Miss Viola Castang, of London; Miss Castang is an authoress—having had one novel accepted, and is now engaged upon writing the second one. The visit of these Londoners will be rather brief but the Woodwards hope to show them something of the south and, too, they will enjoy the adorable young daughter, Phyllis, who is the idol of all who know her.

"Deeds, Not Words"

Goal of Leagues.

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—(AP)—Leading 280 delegates, Mrs. Roger S. Sperry, of Waterbury, Conn., president of the Association of Junior Leagues of America, arrived here today for the organization's twelfth annual conference.

She told a welcoming committee the membership was looking toward a program of "deeds, not words."

The delegates arrived on three special trains for the four-day convention, the first meeting of the association in the far west.

The convention will formulate plans to increase its service to the nation's destitute, it was announced.

Miss Malone Weds Mr. Conner At Ceremony at Lowther Hall

MACON, Ga., May 24.—Lowther Hall, the beautiful country estate of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, was the scene this evening of the marriage of Dr. and Mrs. Jones' niece, Miss Vera Fawcett Malone, of New York City, the daughter of Mrs. Kate Callaway Malone, of Macon, to Francis Ayres Conner, also of New York, the son of Mrs. Granville Conner Jr., of Macon. Dr. Charles E. Burton, pastor of the First Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Mortimer Glover, rector of Christ Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives of the young couple.

In the parlor, where the ceremony took place, quantities of palms interspersed with vases of Calla lilies formed an improvised altar. Through the home pink and orchid larkspur, roses, delphinium and other blossoms were artistically arranged. At the foot of the bride and groom, a large bowl filled with Calla lilies, Mrs. Elliott Dunwoody, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hal King, sang "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms."

The bride and groom descended the winding stairway. The gowns worn by the bride and groom were of the same material, of pastel shades of organdie, fashioned alike on Directoire lines. The high waists were marked by ruffled sashes of the same shade as the dresses, and the skirts were fitted to the knees, where they flared in tiny circular ruffles to the floor. The hats, which matched the gowns in color, were of horsehair braid, the brims dipping over the right eye and caught up in back with a cluster of crushed violets, the same shade as the hats. Their linen slippers were dyed to match their gowns and they carried old-fashioned colonial nosegays of pastel flowers. Miss Mary Shorter Callaway, of Columbus, was spring green; Miss Katherine Anderson, of Gadsden, Ala., and Macon, canary yellow; Miss Elizabeth Payne wore pink, and Miss Nell Axson, of Savannah, wore gentian blue. Mrs. Charles Everett, sister of the bridegroom and matron of honor, wore a gown of pale pink, with hat and slippers of white.

The groomsmen included Frank Jones Jr., Kinloch Dunlap, Baynard Sisson and B. W. Marshall. The bridesmaids, descended the stairs with her mother, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, his brother, Harry T. Nutting, of New York.

Beautiful Bride.
Heavy white satin fashioned the gown worn by the radiant bride. Modeled on Directoire lines, the gown was self-trimmed, featured by a short jacket of the satin made with long, tight sleeves which formed points over the hands. From the jacket extended the long train. The bride's veil was of illusion tulle, and a tiny panache cap of lace, from which hung a short nose veil, was the only lace trim. She carried an exquisite colonial bouquet, the center of which was formed of orange blossoms. Around the blossoms was a circle of gardenias, the outer circle being of graceful valley lilies in a large ruffle of pleated tulle.

The uncle and aunt of the bride, Dr. and Mrs. Jones, entertained at a reception immediately following the ceremony. The beautiful old home and its surrounding gardens formed a perfect setting for the wedding. It was at this home that the bride's grandfather, Timothy Matthews Fawcett, was married 97 years ago.

Assisting in serving and entertaining the guests were Miss Louise Kilpatrick, Mrs. Howard Leonard, Misses Lena Lamar, Lelia Jones, Viola Willingham, Josephine Willingham, Helen Glibby, Estelle Mason, Camille Roberts, Louise Anderson, Margaret Hooks and Caroline Callaway, of Columbus.

Handsome Costumes.
Mrs. Malone, mother of the bride, wore a gown of powder blue chiffon, with a shoulder bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Style by Annette

290

A CHARMING LITTLE MODEL

THIS!

It can be carried out in a great many different fabrics. It all depends upon whether young ladies wish to wear it for parties, "best" or everyday occasions.

For parties, taffeta, crepe de chine or chiffon is darling in pale blue, pink or daffodil yellow.

For simple "best," a crepe de chine print in light navy blue and white is quite ideal as sketches. The yoke that merges into capelet sleeves is plain navy crepe. It's most practical.

Style No. 290 is designed for sizes 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Size 8 requires 1 7/8 yards of 35-inch material with 1 1/2 yard of 35-inch contrast.

Red and white polka-dotted dimity with plain white, pale green linen with yellow and orchid and white checked tissue gingham with plain orchid gingham are striking combinations, truly French.

Our summer fashion magazine will help you economize. It includes styles for the miss, the stout, the matron and adorable models for the kiddies. Also modern embroidery for the home, lingerie, pajamas, etc.

Price of book, 15 cents.

Price of pattern, 15 cents in stamps or coins (coins are preferred). Wrap coin carefully.

Birth Control Luncheon Planned For Friday at Henry Grady Hotel

A large number of reservations are being made for the birth control luncheon to be held at the Henry Grady hotel Friday, May 27, at 12:30 o'clock, with Dr. Albert P. Van Dusen, nationally known sociologist, as the guest speaker. The address, which is being sponsored by the child welfare and social hygiene committees of the Atlanta League of Women Voters, will cover the subject, "Birth Control—Promise or Menace?"

Tickets for the lecture will be 35 cents, while the luncheon and lecture will be 65 cents. The lecture will begin at 1 o'clock, following the luncheon, which will begin at 12:30 o'clock. Reservations may be made at league headquarters, Walnut 847, between 9 and 1 o'clock, or with Mrs. E. V. D. Manning, Dearborn 0708, or Mrs. J. L. Shatten, Vernon 1480.

Reservations must be made by Friday morning. An invitation to attend the meeting will be extended to all doctors under the president of the Fulton County Medical Society at its meeting Thursday.

Lovett School Holds Interesting Program

Interesting activities have filled the last week in the school year at Lovett school. J. Carlyle Martin showed the children a moving picture of the gym exercises and Greek plays yesterday. On Monday the volunteer assembly was featured, when each child contributed whatever he chose to the program. Miss Lucy Marvin Adams, instructor in gymnastics, presented the children in a review of the work done in gym throughout the year. Letters 'L' for the school were awarded to the following children: Dorothy Dean, Dorothy Hall, Glenville Giddings, Lupton Rainwater, Sinclair Jacobs Jr., Emmy Martin, Perry Smith, Elizabeth Armstrong, Ross MacDonald, Mary Ellen Orme, Marion O'Neill, Harry Fleming, Perry Hall, Billy Appleby, Justice Martin, Dickey Stevens, Mary Seabrook and A. B. Martin.

After these exercises a play was given by the fifth, sixth and seventh grades. The play, adapted from Euripides' "Iphigenia" was based on the children's study of Greece, and was written, directed and played by the children. The scenery and costumes were also the work of the children. Francis Mitchell, piano teacher, accompanied the play. The play was a triumph for the Lovett school children and their parents enjoyed the fortune telling, pony riding, moving pictures, pet show and other interesting attractions. An enjoyable feature was the marionette show, "Mickey Mouse," put on by the pupils.

Agnes Scott Blackfriars Present Parker Hord's Play Next Saturday

"Lorena," a three-act play by Parker Hord, will be the Blackfriars' contribution to Agnes Scott commencement this year. The play will be presented by this creditable dramatic organization at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, May 28, in the college gymnasium.

This play is a romance of the old south in part. The first act is in the present time, the second flashes back to the 1860's and the third back to the present. Romantic love is the theme. The plot is intriguing and the dialog is charming.

Mr. Hord is admirably fitted to write such a play of southern tradition and glamour since he is a native Kentuckian and has lived in Atlanta for many years. But he is well known for literary work covering a wide scope of subjects. He has written and published many one-act plays, and last year the Georgia amateur chose one of his plays, "Let Us Pretend," as the best offering of any Georgian for the national play-writing contest conducted by Longmans, Green & Co. and sponsored by the National Drama League. This play was chosen by the national judges as one of the six best from the whole of the United States.

The play is under the direction of Miss Frances K. Good. The cast includes: Charlotte Buchanan, portrayed by Miss Martha Skeen; Kenneth Carruthers, by Miss Margaret Belote; Madge Larue, by Miss Amelia O'Neil; Catechy Woodford, by Miss Catherine Hapgood; Miss Lotie Buchanan, by Miss Mary Lillas Garrettson; Colonel Buchanan, by Miss Rosemary May; Alan Flournoy, by Miss Page Ackerman; Dick Buchanan, by Miss Mary McDonald; Sally Fleming, by Miss Lucille Woodbury; Aunt Cassie, by Miss Helen Etheredge; Carter Larue, by Miss Elizabeth Dobbs; Kitty, by Miss Mary Jane Evans; Horace Butler, by Miss Jo Clark.

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

Eight years ago I married a man I loved dearly. I was 23 years old. Since our marriage he has made it his business to see that I have no contact with the outside world. I have honestly tried to make him appreciate me as a wife and mother, but he has never permitted me to join a club or to entertain anybody in my home. It is impossible to sit down and reason with him calmly. He simply expects me to be completely satisfied staying at home with nothing to go and with nobody to come in to entertain me. I am lonesome and I am considering leaving him. What is your reaction to this problem?

LONESOME WIFE.

ANSWER: The same as yours: Righteous indignation at the outlandish selfishness of a shameless male. A declaration of independence of thought and action is clearly justified. You have grounds, legal, moral and social, for leaving him. He has outraged decency and justice. He has defiled his marriage. He has been tyrannical with his wife. He deserves the maximum of punishment that a wife could mete out to her husband. But you shouldn't allow the thought of vengeance to blind you to some incontrovertible fact. These are some of them. You loved him and presumably still love him. Leaving him won't help your heart hurt. He has taken the best years of your life and blighted them. It wouldn't be easy to establish yourself in another home with another husband at this stage of the game. The very fact that you have been dutiful and patient and forgiving gives you the right to set about to reconstruct your life without reference to his unreasonable demands and without care for his protests. The home is half yours. Use it for entertaining. The daylight hours are yours, when he is away from home and you have no obligations to entertain him. The income is certainly part yours and you should use it as you like.

No woman can afford to live her life without friends. No husband, no matter how good he may be, is competent to fill all the social requirements of a woman's nature. No man, no matter how companionable he may be, can fully appreciate all the family interests. Any woman that depends solely on her husband for companionship is lonely and solitary. She needs association with her own sex. She must swap ideas with other women and discuss her problems, her hopes, and her fears, with those of her own kind, if she is to be contented and happy.

Invite your acquaintances to your home. Join some organizations that will put you to work and divert you from your present plight. If he protests, ignore him. If he tries to make a quarrel, don't participate in it. Just strike out with the resolve that you are entitled to independence which you will have at any cost. A poor woman loving a brutal man is always at the mercy of him, not physically, not mentally, but even so, she will endure torture of the worst sort rather than run the risk of this. But even so, the average man respects a woman more for asserting herself, for demanding her freedom, and for exercising her rights.

If you are sure it is impossible to sit down and reason calmly with him, don't try it. Just embark on the new course without discussing it with him and don't let him frighten you out of your wits.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

THE GUMPS—THE PROWLER

ANDY GUMP ARMED TO THE TEETH HAS CONCEALED HIMSELF IN TOM CARR'S YARD WHERE HE WILL SPEND THE NIGHT—UNBEKNOWN TO TOM OR ANY LIVING SOUL—TO CATCH THAT PROWLER—HIS GUN IS LOADED WITH BUCK SHOT—HIS FINGER IS ON THE TRIGGER—

ALL SET TO GO—

THE HOURS AND THE MINUTES—NO SOUND—HARDLY A BREATH OF AIR STIRRING—SUDDENLY THE TWIG OF A TREE SNAPS—HE THOUGHT HE HEARD A FOOT STEP—IT STARTED ANDY'S TEETH CHATTERING—

WHAT'S THAT?

WHEN ALL WAS QUIET AGAIN—TO GET A BETTER VIEW HE MOVED FORWARD—THERE WAS A RUSTLE IN THE BUSHES—DIRECTLY AHEAD OF HIM—SOMEONE IS COMING—

AND IN THE DIM MOONLIGHT HE SEES THE FIGURE OF A MAN STANDING—NOT THREE PACES FROM HIM—IT IS A TENSE MOMENT—ANDY STEADIES HIMSELF—TAKES AIM AND WAITS—

WHO CAN THIS BE? WHAT CAN HE WANT AT THIS TIME OF THE NIGHT—CONTINUED IN OUR NEXT—

MOON MULLINS—THEIR FLEETING MOMENT

WHEN UNCLE WILLIE AND MOONSHINE SHOOK HANDS AND AGREED TO CALL ON COUSIN BURLAP P. MULLINS TOGETHER AND SHARE HIS FORTUNE FIFTY-FIFTY, THEY BOTH HAD THEIR FINGERS CROSSED.

WHAT, AT SIX O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING, YOU LOW CREEPING HOUND, ARE YOU DOING HERE?

AND YOU, YOU THINK YOU'RE DOIN' HERE?

SHUT UP DOWN THERE!

MEADOWS, NEVER MIND THE POLICE. I'M GOING TO TAKE THIS MATTER INTO MY OWN HANDS!

YAS, UNCLE WILLIE SEEN OLD BURLAP FOR A MINUTE, BUT I DIDN'T.

TELL ME WILLIAM, WHAT PASSED BETWEEN YOU?

WELL, A LAMP AND A COUPLE PITCHERS A EMPTY BOTTLE AND ABOUT SIX BOOTS, AS NEAR AS I CAN RECOLLECT, MISS SCHMALTZ.

GASOLINE ALLEY—AS WOMAN TO WOMAN

I KNOW WHAT COUSIN WALT MEANT—HE'S HEARD SOME OF THE STORIES GOING AROUND ABOUT PRIGGY, BUT THEY'RE NOT TRUE, PRIGGY HAS TOLD ME THEY'RE NOT.

COUSIN WALT IS BLUNT, LORA, BUT HE HAS YOUR INTEREST AT HEART. HE MAY HAVE OTHER REASONS.

HE WANTS ME TO GIVE PRIGGY UP AND A WEEK OR TWO AGO THAT WOULD'NT HAVE BEEN DIFFICULT, BUT I'M AFRAID, COUSIN PHYLIS, I'M FALLING FOR HIM HARD.

YOU'RE JUST SORRY FOR HIM BECAUSE YOU THINK COUSIN WALT IS UNFAIR TO HIM, THAT'S ALL, LORA. AND PRIGGY JUST LOVES YOUR SYMPATHY DOESN'T HE?

I SUPPOSE SO.

OF COURSE HE DOES, BUT YOU JUST KEEP YOUR HEAD, HONEY, AND THIS WILL ALL WORK OUT. DON'T WORRY A BIT MORE ABOUT IT.

SMITTY—SILENCE IS GOLDEN

SO WHO DO YOU THINK I'VE GOT A DATE WITH TODAY? OUR FORMER PRESIDENT!! AND IF I GET HIS AUTOGRAPH WONT THAT BE SOMETHING!!

PLEASE MR. COOLIDGE, IT WOULD BE GRAND IF YOU WOULD GIVE ME YOUR AUTOGRAPH SO THEN ALL MY FRIENDS COULD HAVE IT TOO, WILL YOU, PLEASE?

WERE ALL SAVING THEM AND IF YOU WOULD GIVE US YOURS IT WOULD BE SWEET—WILL YOU DO IT HUH?

GOLLY HE HAD ME WORRIED FOR A MINUTE WHEN HE DIDNT SAY ANYTHING—BUT I GOT IT!!

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: After All

LISTEN, OLIVER—MAYBE IT'S HARDLY A SUBJECT IT AT SHOULD BE MENTIONED, BUT THESE DAYS ONE NEVER KNOWS WHAT WILL HAPPEN NEXT, AND AS YOUR WIFE, I THINK I HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW—IF YOU HAVE MADE A WILL, WOULD YOU MIND TELLING ME WHAT PROVISION YOU HAVE MADE FOR ME?

THAT'S A FAIR AND REASONABLE QUESTION, TRIxie—SURE, I'VE MADE A WILL—IN CASE I MEET WITH AN ACCIDENT YOU GET HALF—AND LITTLE ANNIE GETS HALF—

WHAT? THAT WIFE? NOT EVEN YOUR OWN CHILD—SHE'S NOBODY'S CHILD—BUT I AM YOUR LAWFULLY WEDDED WIFE—YET YOU MEAN TO SAY YOU HAVE LEFT HER THE SAME AMOUNT YOU HAVE LEFT ME?

WELL, IT'S MOST DECIDEDLY TOO MUCH FOR A SMART-ARLECK LITTLE ORPHAN, LIKE ANNIE—SHE SHOULD BE IN A GOOD INSTITUTION—

WHAM!

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER: The Early Bird

JUST NUTS

THEY'VE ALREADY PLAYED ONE ACT, MADAM!

WHICH ONE?

GOOD LAWD—MISTO' LIBS—HOW COME YOU'LL GO TO GET IN TO OFFICE SO EARLY? TAIN'T ONLY SEVEN THIRTY O'CLOCK, SUH!

I KNOW IT, SAM! I GOT HERE EARLY TO ASK MISS WINKLE FOR A DATE BEFORE THAT BIG BUM DICK DARLING—

AHHHH! GOOD MORNING, WINNIE! NOW ABOUT A LIL DATE FOR THIS EVENING—JUST YOU AN' I??

WELL, FOR HEAVEN'S SAKE, AD LIB!! SO EARLY IN THE MORNING?

I'M ANFULLY SORRY, AD, BUT DICK DARLING BEAT YOU TO IT!!

HON'N BLAZES COULD HE?? I GOT UP BEFORE DAYLIGHT TO BE HERE AN' ASK YOU FIRST!!

I SEE YOU DID, BUT DICK PHONED ME LATE LAST NIGHT, AND ASKED FOR THIS EVENING'S DATE!!

SON OF RICH MAN MARRIES HOSTESS OF DANCE HALL

NEW YORK, May 24.—(UP)—Another dance hall romance in which the rich man's son weds the 10-cent dance hostess was revealed today when it became known that Ralph Schermerhorn Randolph, of the social register, married Miss Peggy Price, formerly of Memphis, eight months ago.

Randolph, "home from Yale," dropped in at a dance hall where Miss Price, who had lost her position with a brokerage house, was making both ends meet by acting as a hostess.

His visits became more and more frequent, and Miss Price was promoted to the cashier's job. But she always left her cage to dance when her boy friend appeared.

In September they were married, and Randolph fitted up a little apartment on the upper West Side for his bride, but continued to live with his parents.

The bride formerly was a student at St. Joseph's convent in Iowa. Randolph is working for a Wall Street brokerage house.

INDEMNITY COMPANY MAKES ADAR AGENT

The Adair Realty & Loan Company has been appointed general agent in the state of Georgia for the Firemen's Fund Indemnity Company, it was announced on Tuesday by Eugene F. Hord, executive vice president of the company. The Adair agency will write all classes of casualty insurance and fidelity and surety bonds for the company.

The Firemen's Fund will maintain in the office of the Atlanta agency a full personnel for the handling of claims, audits and inspections, it was announced.

The company is a member of the Firemen's Fund Group, one of the largest of American insurance companies, with a period of service extending over 70 years. The Adair agency, one of the largest here, has also been in business many years.

OGLETHORPE IS GIVEN VALUABLE PICTURES

New additions to the collection of the W. Earl Hopper Peace Memorial at Oglethorpe University are two sets of pictures from the French and Japanese governments, according to Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president. The group, which was founded by W. Earl Hopper, director of the Hall of Nations Museum at Ashbury Park, N. J., includes gifts received from individuals, corporations and governments from all parts of the world.

Notable among the treasures in the foundation are silk flags from many nations and a large photograph, autographed, from President Paul Hindenburg, of Germany.

SPRATLIN-HARRINGTON MADE GLOBE AGENTS

Appointment of Spratlin, Harrington & Thomas as general agents of the Globe Indemnity Company, of New York, was announced on Tuesday by A. Duncan Reid, president of the company.

In its capacity as general agent the Atlanta agency will have charge of underwriting, claims, engineering and inspection service for the Globe. The latter is one of the leading underwriters of casualty and insurance business.

Spratlin, Harrington & Thomas is one of the largest general insurance agencies here and is now celebrating its twentieth anniversary.

DOGS QUARANTINED AFTER DEATH OF BOY

LAKELAND, Fla., May 24.—(AP)—The city today ordered a quarantine on all dogs as a result of the death of Allen Spivey, young son of Dr. and Mrs. Ludd M. Spivey, who was bitten by a mad dog a month ago. He died yesterday. Dr. Spivey is president of Southern College.

Another child was attacked by a dog yesterday.

All dogs in Lakeland must be kept in quarantine for 60 days, and none of them will be allowed to run at large unless they have been treated for rabies.

Commencement exercises at the college, scheduled for today, were postponed in respect to the Spivey family.

WATERWAY PROJECT TENTATIVELY ADOPTED

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(AP)—A $1,000,000 project for a modification of the intracoastal waterway waterway from Winah Bay to Charleston, S. C., to follow the coast route was tentatively adopted today by the house rivers and harbors committee.

A $2,500 annual maintenance project to remove rocks and snags from the Mobile river, Alabama, from the mouth of Chickasaw creek to the junction of the Alabama and Tombigbee rivers also was tentatively approved by the same committee.

CHICAGO, May 24.—(P)—Rains southwest and west tumbled wheat down 2 cents a bushel today, despite assertions the moisture came too late to do much harm.

Wheat closed unstable at only a fractional recovery from the day's bottom figures, 1 1-8 to 1 5-8 under yesterday's finish, corn 1-4 to 1 1-8 down, oats 3-8 to 3-4 off, and provisions unchanged to 17 cents lower.

Likelihood of an after-planting movement of corn left that grain without much support in the absence of wheat strength. Planting operations here have been slow.

parts of the corn belt. Oats sold off with other grains.

Cash buyers sympathized with the weakness in prices, and were unresponsive to an upturn in the value of hogs.

Little Theater To End Season
With "Aren't We All" Tonight

With the bright and sparkling comedy,
"Aren't We All" as its offering, the Little Theater of the Studio Club will close its season tonight with a single performance of the play at the Woman's Club auditorium.

It offers a brilliant cast of popular and talented Atlantans who have worked with their play until it moves quickly and entertainingly forward to its extraordinarily interesting and laughable conclusion.

It was the starring vehicle for Cyril Maude some years ago, was "Aren't We All." And the play has never been shown in Atlanta on the professional stage or on the screen.

Mr. Cyril Smith will be seen in the part created by Mr. Maude. Mr.
Smith played this part in a performance in the club theater, and it was adjudged the finest bit of work done by him in his many brilliant appearances on the amateur stage in Atlanta.

Director Gene Bergman selected the cast with unusual care for this last offering of the season. It includes some well-known talent. Marion Camp appears in a leading role as the Hon.
Willie Tatham. Cyril Smith is Lord
Jorgensen and Griff Edwards, all well-known in local theatrical circles, appear in other leading roles.

The feminine players offer a great deal of beauty and talent to the production. The players include Mrs.
Albert Howell Jr., Mary Elizabeth
Pinkston and Miss Cleveland Zahner.

All of these players have had brilliant successes in former Little Theater plays and their appearance tonight is eagerly anticipated.

Tickets are on sale at the local schools and at the box office. Those bought in advance today will give the purchasers a better choice of seats.

Because of the excellence of the play and cast a large audience is expected to greet the players tonight.

Wash. High Glee Club
Seats on Sale Today

Seats for the program to be given at 8:30 o'clock Thursday night in the city auditorium by the Booker T.
Washington High School Glee Club will go on sale this morning.

The concert will be given for the benefit of the extra curricular activities of the school. In addition to the glee club solo voices singing spirituals and selections, Graham Jackson, Atlanta's unique negro musician, will give a program on the big pipe organ and the Seminole Syncopeers, 15 of the best jazz artists ever gathered in one orchestra, will play.

The auditorium has been divided into two sections, for white and for colored. Reserved seats, at an exceptionally low scale of prices, will go on sale today at Cable Piano Company for white patrons, and at Yates and Mills pharmacy, corner of Auburn avenue, for colored.
